“ I am a previous girlfriend of Shawn's. We dated off and on for awhile. We both agreed that we were like a magnet and steel, something would always draw us back together whenever we would split up. He was such a great guy, and so amazing to me. He may have lost both legs, but he didn't let that stop him from doing anything. I always tried to help him do things, but he didn't want help. He wanted to do everything himself. I fell deeply in love with him, and wanted so bad to marry him. But, that's not what he wanted, so we went our separate ways. He wanted to still be my friend after we split for good, but I couldn't do it, because I loved him so much, and it hurt me to not be with him and know he was with someone else. I was happy for him, but yet hurt at the same time. To his parents, sister, and kids, you all have my deepest condolences and may you all find peace and comfort knowing he's not suffering anymore. To you Shawn, may you rest peacefully now, no more pain, illness or suffering anymore. I will always love you. I am so glad to have had the time I did with you.

“ Looked forward to Shawn being my son inlaw. He could always put a smile on my face. He and I bonded our first meeting over Godzilla. We're both freaky like that. God has a good msn. Will miss him dearly. To his family, Kathy and his friends, my sincerest condolences.

“ Mr. Clark and Ms. Linda and Michelle, my heart goes out to each of you as you have lost Shawn. I can't even begin to imagine the hurt you are dealing with. As you know Shawn was a large part of my high school life. He and I and the couple of others we ran with were always out and about barely staying out of trouble. He was always the laughter of the group, either laughing at something that made no sense to the rest of us or saying something off the wall and getting the rest of us cracked up! We loved him for that. He will be missed. I have prayed for you all and will continue to do so. May God bless you in this time.

Kathy - Thank you so much for reaching out and letting Meri and I know what was going on last week. It was a pleasure and honor to talk to you on the phone. We are praying for you as well. Please let us know if you all decide to have a gathering of any kind in honor of, memory of or celebration of Shawn's life. He was a fighter.
